Acting Members present: Myron Thompson for Art Hanger.

In attendance: House of Commons: Carmen DePape, Committee Clerk. Parliamentary Information and Research Service: Kristen Douglas, Analyst.

The Clerk of the Committee presided over the election of a Chair.

On motion of Derek Lee, it was agreed, — That David Chatters be elected Chair of the Committee.

The Clerk of the Committee presided over the election of the Vice-Chairs.

On motion of David Chatters, it was agreed, — That Derek Lee be elected First Vice-Chair of the Committee.

On motion of Mario Laframboise, it was agreed, — That Ed Broadbent be elected Second Vice-Chair of the Committee.

David Chatters took the Chair.

On motion of Derek Lee, it was agreed, — That the Chair, the two Vice-Chairs and a representative of the Bloc Québécois do compose the Subcommittee on Agenda and Procedure.

On motion of Derek Lee, it was agreed, — That the Committee retain the services of one or more analysts from the Library of Parliament, as needed, to assist the Committee in its work, at the discretion of the Chair.

On motion of Derek Lee, it was agreed, — That the Chair be authorized to hold meetings to receive and publish evidence when a quorum is not present provided that at least three (3) members are present including a government member and a member of the opposition.

On motion of Derek Lee, it was agreed, — That after the first round of questioning of witnesses, three (3) minutes be allocated to each member, on each round, alternating between Government and Opposition members and ensuring that all members have the opportunity to ask questions.

On motion of Ed Broadbent, it was agreed, — That during the first round of questioning of witnesses, seven (7) minutes be allocated to each party in the following order: Conservative, Bloc Québécois,

Liberal and New Democratic Party.

On motion of Derek Lee, it was agreed, — That witnesses be given no more than ten (10) minutes for their opening statement and if they have additional information, it should be deposited with the Clerk of Committee.

On motion of Derek Lee, it was agreed, — That, as established by the Board of Internal Economy and if requested, reasonable travel, accommodation and living expenses be reimbursed to witnessses invited to appear before the Committee up to a maximum of two (2) representatives for any organization.

Marlene Jennings moved, — That no document will be considered to be officially tabled until the document is available in both official languages and ready for distribution solely by the Clerk.

Debate arose thereon.

By unanimous consent, the motion was withdrawn.

It was agreed, —That the matter of the distribution of documents be referred to the Subcommittee on Agenda and Procedure.

On motion of Marlene Jennings, it was agreed, — That the Committee authorize the Clerk of the Committee, from time to time, as the need arises, to take the appropriate measures to provide for meals for the Committee and its Subcommittees, for workings purposes, and that the cost of these meals be charged to the budget of the Committee.

On motion of Marlene Jennings, it was agreed, — That, unless otherwise ordered, each Committee member present be allowed to have one staff person present at in camera meetings.

On motion of Derek Lee, it was agreed, — That one copy of the transcript of all in camera meetings be kept in the Committee Clerk's office for consultation by members of the Committee.

It was agreed, — That unless there is unanimous consent, forty-eight (48) hours' notice must be given to the members of the Committee before any substantive motion is considered by the Committee.

At 9:59 a.m., the Committee adjourned to the call of the Chair.

Dyane Adam and Jean-Pierre Kingsley made statements and, with the other witnesses, answered questions.

Ed Broadbent moved, — 1) That the government of Canada develop skills and competence-related criteria for all government appointments, including Board Members and senior Officers of Crown Corporations and other government agencies, for which the Standing Committee has reviewing responsibility; and that these criteria specifically address the impartial nature of these appointments.

2) That the government then submit these criteria to the Standing Committee for consideration, and approval with amendment if necessary.

3) That the Government of Canada then publicly release, including publishing in the Canada Gazette, the committee-approved criteria for each appointment.

4) That the names and background of each nominee for appointment be referred to the Standing Committee 60 days prior to the date of their appointment, with an explanation of how each nominee has met the established criteria; and, that the Committee, unless it unanimously decides otherwise, shall have at least one full meeting every two months (while the House of Commons is in session) to review the nominations .

Debate arose thereon.

By unanimous consent, the motion was withdrawn.

It was agreed, — That matter of the review of government appointments be referred to the ursday, May 5, 2005

The Standing Committee on Access to Information, Privacy and Ethics met in camera at 9:09 a.m. this day, in Room 209 West Block, the Acting Chair, David Tilson, presiding.

Members of the Committee present: Navdeep Bains, Marc Boulianne, Ed Broadbent, Ken Epp, Russ Hiebert, Arlene Jennings, Mario Laframboise, Derek Lee, Russ Powers, David Tilson and Paul Zed.

Meeting Members present: Tom Lukiwski for David Chatters.

Attendance: Library of Parliament: Kristen Douglas, Analyst; Nancy Holmes, Analyst.

Pursuant to Standing Order 108(3)(h), the Committee resumed its study of the funding mechanism of the Offices of the Information Commissioner, the Privacy Commissioner and the Ethics Commissioner.

The Committee commenced consideration of a draft report.

It was agreed, — That the draft report, as amended, be adopted.

It was agreed, — That the Chair and the staff of the Committee be authorized to determine the title of the Report.

It was agreed, — That the Clerk and analysts be authorized to make such grammatical and editorial changes as may be necessary without changing the substance of the report.

ORDERED, — That the Chair present the report to the House.

The Committee proceeded to the consideration of matters related to Committee business.

The following motion was agreed to, — The Justice Minister's Discussion Paper on the reform of the Access to Information Act suggested that the Information Commissioner's office draft legislation based on their recommendations, for consideration by this Committee.

In April 26, 2005, the Information Commissioner wrote to the Committee offering to undertake this task, however, it was pointed out that the office does not have professional legislative counsel and would need assistance in this regard.

Therefore, the Committee recommends:

That it be requested that the House of Commons' Legislative Counsel Office assign legislative counsel to assist the Information Commissioner's Office in drafting legislation to be presented to the Committee when the House of Commons resumes sitting in the Fall of 2005.

At 10:57 a.m., the Committee adjourned until 9:00 a.m. on Tuesday, May 10, 2005.

Meeting No. 2

Monday, May 15, 2006

The Standing Committee on Access to Information, Privacy and Ethics met at 3:31 p.m. this day, in Room 269, West Block, the Chair, Tom Wappel, presiding.

Members of the Committee present: Sukh Dhaliwal, Jean-Yves Laforest, Carole Lavallée, Pat Martin, Bruce Stanton, David Tilson, Dave Van Kesteren, Mike Wallace, Tom Wappel and Paul Zed.

Acting Members present: Paul Steckle for Hon. Maurizio Bevilacqua.

In attendance: Library of Parliament: Kristen Douglas, Analyst; Nancy Holmes, Analyst.

The Committee proceeded to the consideration of matters related to Committee business.

The Chair presented the First Report from the Subcommittee on Agenda and Procedure which read as follows:

1. That the Committee sit on Monday afternoons and/or evenings;
2. That the Information, Privacy and Ethics Commissioners be invited to brief the Committee on their mandates;
3. That the Registrar of Lobbyists be invited to appear before the Committee on the mandate of the Office.

Paul Zed moved, — That the First Report be adopted.

After debate, the question was put on the motion and it was agreed to.

The Committee proceeded to the Notice of Motion of Carole Lavallée.

Carole Lavallée moved, — That this committee reaffirms the need to maintain the independence of the Office of the Information Commissioner, and recommends that the Justice Minister consider the advisability of introducing before June 23rd 2006 legislation in the House of Commons based on the provisions of the “Open Government Act” presented by Information Commissioner John Reid, with the assistance of the Legislative Counsel of the House of Commons.

Debate arose thereon.

On motion of Pat Martin, it was agreed, — That the motion be amended by deleting the words “reaffirms the need to maintain the independence of the Office of the Information Commissioner”.

The question was put on the motion, as amended, and it was negative on the following recorded division: YEAS: Sukh Dhaliwal, Jean-Yves Laforest, Carole Lavallée — 3; NAYS: Bruce Stanton, Paul Steckle, David Tilson, Dave Van Kesteren, Mike Wallace, Paul Zed — 6.

At 4:10 p.m., the Committee adjourned to the call of the Chair.

RULING BY THE CHAIR

On the question of the notices of motions concerning the Mulroney-Schreiber affair the Chair ruled, - That the Standing Order 108(3)(h)(i) to v) the motions were out of order; and that under Standing Order 108(3)(h)(vi) the motions were in order.

Pat Martin moved, — That the Standing Committee on Access to Information, Privacy and Ethics undertake a review of matters related to the Mulroney Airbus libel settlement; including any and all new evidence, testimony, and information not available at the time of the settlement so as to determine if there were violations of ethical and code of conduct standards by any public office holders; and to report to the House on its findings, conclusions and recommendations.

Charles Hubbard moved, — That the motion be amended by replacing the words after the word “That” with the words “in order to examine whether there were violations of ethical and code of conduct standards by any office holder, the Standing Committee on Access to Information, Privacy and Ethics review matters relating to the Mulroney Airbus settlement, including any and all new evidence, testimony and information not available at the time of settlement and including allegations relating to the Right Hon. Brian Mulroney made by Karlheinz Schreiber and, in particular, the handling of allegations by the present government including the circulation of relevant correspondence in the Privy Council Office and Prime Ministers Office; That Karlheinz Schreiber be called to be a witness before the committee without delay; and That the committee report to the House its findings, conclusions and recommendations thereon”.

Debate arose thereon.

Mike Wallace moved, — That the amendment be amended by adding after before the words “allegations by the present” the following: “and past”.

After debate, the question was put on the subamendment of Mike Wallace and it was agreed to.

After debate, the question was put on the amendment of Charles Hubbard and it was agreed to.

After debate, the question was put on the motion, as amended, and it was agreed to.

Russ Hiebert moved, — That this committee commence a study that would have as its purpose a comprehensive review of the Privacy Act.

Debate arose thereon.

Carole Lavallée moved, — That the motion be amended by adding the word “eventually” after the word “Act.”

After debate, the question was put on the amendment of Carole Lavallée and it was agreed to.

After debate, the question was put on the motion, as amended, and it was agreed to.

Pat Martin moved, — That the Standing Committee on Access to Information, Privacy and Ethics call Karlheinz Schreiber before the Committee on Thursday November 22nd, Tuesday November 27th, and Thursday November 29th; and Brian Mulroney on Tuesday December 4th, Thursday December 6th and Tuesday December 11th; to answer questions pertaining to a potential Ethics Committee investigation.

Debate arose thereon.

Mike Wallace moved, — That the motion be amended by deleting the words “ Thursday November 22” and the word “and” after the words “Tuesday, November 27th” and after “Thursday, December 6th” and substituting the words “and / or”.

After debate, the question was put on the amendment of Mike Wallace and it was agreed to.

After debate, the question was put on the motion, as amended, and it was agreed to.

The Chair presented the First Report from the Subcommittee on Agenda and Procedure which read as follows:

That the Committee consider undertaking studies on the following topics, presented in no particular order:

1. Motions presented by members.
2. Inviting the Minister of Justice to appear before the Committee to discuss the Access to Information Act.
3. The database of personal information, including religious affiliations, held by the Prime Minister’s Office.
4. The study commenced by the Committee during the previous session on the Access to Information request for the Department of Foreign Affairs and International Trade internal report entitled “Afghanistan 2006: Good Governance, Democratic Development and Human Rights”.

5. Inviting the Privacy Commissioner to prepare amendments or a new act that incorporates the work done by the Committee in the previous session on the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act.

6. Resuming the study commenced by the Committee in the previous session on identify theft.

7. Undertaking a review of the Privacy Act.

On motion of Pat Martin, it was agreed, — That the report of the Subcommittee be concurred in.

Charles Hubbard moved, — That the Chair be empowered to summons Karlheinz Schreiber and / or use any other means for his appearance on or before November 29, 2007.

The question was put on the motion and the results of the vote was announced: YEAS: 5; NAYS: 5.

Whereupon, the Chair voted in the affirmative.

Accordingly, the motion was agreed to.

Gérard Asselin moved, — That the lists of witnesses on the Mulroney-Schreiber study be submitted to the Clerk of the Committee by 5:00 p.m., Monday November 26, 2007.

Debate arose thereon.

Meeting No. 4

Tuesday, November 27, 2007

The Standing Committee on Access to Information, Privacy and Ethics met at 11:11 a.m. this day, in Room 269, West Block, the Chair, Paul Szabo, presiding.

Acting Members present: Thomas J. Mulcair for Pat Martin and Hon. Robert Thibault for Glen Douglas Pearson.

Associate Members present: Mike Lake.

Other Members present: Derek Lee.

In attendance: Library of Parliament: Nancy Holmes, Analyst; Kristen Douglas, Analyst. House of Commons: Julia Lockhart, Committee Clerk.

Witnesses: House of Commons: Rob Walsh, Law Clerk and Parliamentary Counsel.

Pursuant to Standing Order 108(2) and the motion adopted by the Committee on Thursday, November 22, 2007, the Committee commenced its study of the Mulroney Airbus Settlement.

Pat Martin moved, — That this Committee directs the Chair immediately to contact the Speaker of the House and urge him to issue two Speaker's Warrants, one to compel Mr. Schreiber to appear before the Committee, and another to compel the head of institution where Mr. Schreiber is currently in custody to turn Mr. Schreiber over to the custody of the Speaker. Further, that this Committee directs the Chair to obtain agreement from the Speaker that arrangements will be made so that a) Mr. Schreiber can have continuing access to papers which are in his possession in Ottawa; b) Mr. Schreiber be able to appear before Committee in business dress and without obvious security measures; c) that Mr. Schreiber be brought to the Committee as required by the Committee and for so long as the Committee may require his appearance as a witness. The Committee recommends to the Speaker that guarded house arrest be considered an appropriate arrangement.

RULING BY THE CHAIR

The Chair ruled the proposed motion out of order as the process described in the motion is not procedurally correct.

Pat Martin moved, — That notwithstanding the usual format of the Committee meeting for two hours twice a week, that the Committee subcommittee on agenda and procedure meet today 27 November to develop a plan for extended hours for each hearing, extended hearings each week, and sitting when the House is not sitting so that hearings on the current topic before the Committee can be concluded and a Report transmitted to the House on a timely manner, and that the subcommittee report back to the Committee at the beginning of its hearing on 29 November.

Robert Thibault moved, — That the motion be amended by deleting the words “meeting for two hours twice a week” and “each hearing, extended hearings each week, and”.

After debate, the question was put on the amendment of Robert Thibault and it was agreed to.

After debate, the question was put on the motion, as amended, and it was agreed to.

The motion, as amended, read as follows:

That notwithstanding the usual format of the Committee, that the Committee subcommittee on agenda and procedure meet today 27 November to develop a plan for extended hours and sitting when the House is not sitting so that hearings on the current topic before the Committee can be concluded and a Report transmitted to the House on a timely manner, and that the subcommittee report back to the Committee at the beginning of its hearing on 29 November.

The witness made a statement and answered questions.

Robert Thibault moved, — That the Committee report to the House recommending that the Speaker issue any necessary warrants for the appearance of Karlheinz Schreiber before the Standing Committee on Access to Information, Privacy and Ethics, as soon as possible and that he be available until discharged by the Committee.

After debate, the question was put on the motion and it was agreed to.

PROCÈS-VERBAL

Séance n° 19

Le jeudi 28 février 2008

Le Comité permanent de l'accès à l'information, de la protection des renseignements personnels et de l'éthique se réunit aujourd'hui à huis clos à 15 h 33, dans la pièce 237-C de l'édifice du Centre, sous la présidence de Paul Szabo, président.

Membres substituts présents : L'hon. Wayne Easter remplace Sukh Dhaliwal, Serge Ménard remplace Richard Nadeau et l'hon. Robert Thibault remplace Glen Douglas Pearson.

Membres associés présents : Michel Guimond.

Aussi présents : Bibliothèque du Parlement : Nancy Holmes, analyste; Kristen Douglas, analyste.
Chambre des communes : Erica Pereira, greffière de comité.

Le Comité entreprend l'examen de questions relatives aux travaux du Comité.

Il est convenu, — Que le Comité fasse rapport à la Chambre de la fin de l'étape consistant à recueillir des témoignages et de l'information au sujet de l'entente Mulroney Airbus et qu'il recommande la tenue d'une enquête publique sur-le-champ.

Il est convenu, — Conformément à l'article du Règlement 108 (1)(a) en ce qui concerne les rapports contradictoires sur les pratiques de levée de fonds du parti Libéral, le comité porte une enquête sur les pratiques de levée de fonds du parti Libéral du Canada, qui – justifié par des événements récents, tels que l'encaissement qui a eu lieu au Centre des Congrès d'Ottawa, le 13 février, 2008, le banquet des Leader Libéraux de Stéphane Dion qui a eu lieu le 21 février, 2008, ce à quoi des dons de corporations ont été acceptés par l'entremise de L'agence fédérale du parti Libéral du Canada en Saskatchewan, le Carnaval d'Halloween à Mississauga-Streetville, le 26 octobre, 2007 qui a été commandité par des corporations, et autres événements qui ont eu lieu auparavant – sont potentiellement en violation de la Loi électorale du Canada en encourageant et en permettant des dons personnels en excès de $1100.00 dollars, de plus, encouragent et permettent des contributions politiques de corporations, d'unions et d'associations.

Il est convenu, — Que, en ce qui concerne la motion adoptée par le Comité au sujet des pratiques de financement du Parti libéral, le Comité commence son étude immédiatement.

À 17 h 19, le Comité s'ajourne jusqu'à nouvelle convocation par la présidence.

Associate Members present: Mike Lake.

In attendance: Library of Parliament: Nancy Holmes, Analyst; Kristen Douglas, Analyst.

The Committee proceeded to the consideration of matters related to Committee business.

It was agreed, — That the Committee suspend indefinitely the study relating to the Fundraising Practices of the Liberal Party .

It was agreed, — That the Committee's analysts prepare a draft report for the Mulroney - Schreiber study for consideration on March 13, 2008.

It was agreed, — That the Committee proceed to sit in public.

At 5:03 p.m., the sitting was suspended.

At 5:04 p.m., the sitting resumed in public.

The Committee resumed consideration of the motion of Sukh Dhaliwal, which was moved in the in camera portion of the meeting and proposes — That upon completion its Study of the Mulroney Airbus Settlement, the committee investigate the allegation in journalist Tom Zytaruk's book, Like a Rock: The Chuck Cadman Story, that the late Member of Parliament Chuck Cadman was offered financial rewards by Conservative Party officials in exchange for agreeing to vote to bring down the government in May 2005. If true, these allegations violate Standing Order 23(1), "The offer of any money or other advantage to any Member of this House, for the promoting of any matter whatsoever depending or to be transacted in Parliament, is a high crime and misdemeanour, and tends to the subversion of the Constitution"

RULING BY THE CHAIR

The Chair ruled not to render his decision on the admissibility of the motion until the Speaker has ruled on the point of order, raised by the Member for Mississauga-South, involving the mandate of a committee.

Hon. Charles Hubbard appealed the decision of the Chair.

By a show of hands the Ruling of the Chair was not sustained.

At 5:18 p.m., the Committee adjourned to the call of the Chair.
